STATE OF NEW YORK.

IN ASSEMBLY, April 11, 1838.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur,) That, in the opinion of this Legislature, the practice of duelling at all times deserves the severest reprobation; that it more especially deserves our utter condemnation and abhorrence, when indulged in by those in conspicuous public stations.

The Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States, are therefore requested to use their best efforts to procure the adoption of such constitutional remedies within the power of the National Legislature to enact, as shall accord with the moral sense of the country, and effectually suppress the practice.
